UD GRADUATE RECEIVES WALL STREET JOURNAL STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

DAYTON, Ohio, September 1, 1986--Frank Sacco, a 1986 summa cum laude graduate from the University of Dayton, is one of the winners of the 1986 Wall Street Journal Student Achievement Award. Sacco is the son of Frank S. and Mary Ann Sacco of 78 Crescent Drive, Washington, Pennsylvania. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration in April.

The award is given annually to over 850 of America's finest business students. The Wall Street Journal's educational service bureau sponsors the award, which has been given since 1948 to outstanding students selected by their schools.

Sacco, a graduate of Immaculate Conception High School in Washington, Pennsylvania, is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, a business honors society. He served on the University of Dayton's faculty awards committee and worked for WDCR, UD's student-run radio station, and Orpheus, the University's literary magazine. Sacco is also a brother of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.
